

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT
219 South Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois 60604

September 13, 2021

Chief Judge Diane S. Sykes

No. 07-21-90057

IN RE COMPLAINT AGAINST A JUDGE

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

The complainant filed a misconduct complaint against the judge who presided over two civil cases that he filed in 2016 and 2017. He alleges that the judge consistently misapplied the law in such a way as to indicate that the judge suffers from mental disability as well as a profound bias against prisoners and in favor of the government.

Allegations that are directly related to the merits of the judge's decisions are not proper grounds for a misconduct complaint. 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii). "Any allegation that calls into question the correctness of an official action of a judge ... is merits related." STEPHEN BREYER ET AL., IMPLEMENTATION OF THE JUDICIAL CONDUCT AND DISABILITY ACT OF 1980: A REPORT TO THE CHIEF JUSTICE 145 (2006). To the extent that the complainant challenges the judge's application of the law to the facts, the allegations are merits related and the complaint must be dismissed. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii). To the extent that the complainant suggests that the judge was mentally disabled or biased against him and prisoners in general, the allegations are wholly unsupported and likewise must be dismissed. 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii); see RULES FOR JUD.-CONDUCT & JUD.-DISABILITY PROC. 11(c)(1)(D).

For the foregoing reasons, the complaint is dismissed pursuant to § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii) and (iii). The complainant may petition the Judicial Council of the Seventh Circuit for review of this order in accordance with Rule 18(b) of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. 28 U.S.C. § 352(c); see RULES FOR JUD.-CONDUCT & JUD.-DISABILITY PROC. 11(g)(3). A petition for review must be filed in the clerk's office of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit not later than 42 days of the date of this order.
